

Your love awaits you in that golden city. Jesus

Your love awaits you in that golden city. Jesus

One Day We Will Meet

On paper I can write about love real well, but the harsh reality is love is hard to find. Love that last a lifetime or love that is true seems nearly impossible. If you are seeking love and unable to find it all you have to do is look up. God created one true love, that love of course bears the name, LORD Jesus Christ.

Jesus Christ is the glue to keep our lives together.
Jesus is the shelter to withstand the tempest of stormy weather.
God holds the key to the doorway of your heart.
God is the healer to giving you a fresh start.
God fits our heart like fingers to a glove.
God fills your need when your heart is empty of love.
When your heart is turned over and all the love all runs out.
Satan has lied filling your heart with doubt.
Then Jesus is the answer he lifts burdens and heals pain.
When you are all out of answers look for Jesus with the key for your chain.
God can do all things, he is strong God is wise.
To end all the evil, and crush Satan's lies.
If you wanted a river, but only found a stream.
Hold to God in promise, he will stand strong and true, with answers to your dream.
Love is like an ocean a sea of shining glass.
It stands strong indeed forever, and life's problems sink to the bottom, and forgotten they will pass.
My dear true love I don't know you, though someday we might meet.
But when this world is over, I'll hold your hand on that golden street. AMEN...

God loves you and longs to hold you... His love is real and one day we will reign with him as sons and daughters of the KING most high. That KING is Jesus!

Amen

www.bible-america.com by Dale Lee Gordon