

WHEN YOU ARE HURTING AND DON'T HAVE ALL THE ANSWERS???

When you hurt and you don't know why.

God sent His Son He sent Him to die.

When your heart is broken and it will not mend.

God is love and He is there to defend.

When you are sad and lonely and the teardrops fall.

Know God is your fortress and strength and conquered all.

Your strength is shattered you are at a dead end.

Know Jesus overcame death and Jesus is your friend.

We serve a risen Savior and when he left no bones were in His tomb.

He came to Earth born a King the Holy Ghost impregnated Mary's womb.

Things in this Earth we don't always understand why.

Perhaps our only understanding is the teardrops we cry.

Answers are hard to figure when things seem a darkened haze.

But God knows everything He is the Ancient of Days.

God is unlike a politician or a president.

Our King Jesus Christ was sinless this is no accident.

There will come a day when we are summonsed to the LORD.

In that day we will either suffer rebuke or heaven's just reward.

God is our Savior though this world has been hijacked by Satan the wicked thing.

And that is why so many suffer because Jesus right now is not the world's King.

Soon Jesus Christ is coming oh Immanuel.

To stomp the evil one, Satan, and to forever seal the gates of hell.
